Councilmember Joe Bushnell's Lifelong Commitment to Service

From the U.S. Marines to City Hall — Always Putting Tacoma First

Joe Bushnell has spent his life serving others as a U.S. Marine, then as a neighborhood leader, and now as a trusted voice on the Tacoma City Council.

Keeping Tacoma Safe

- Joe helped shorten 9-1-1 response times so help arrives when it's needed most.
- He supported hiring more officers to respond to emergencies and maintain public order.
- He's working with first responders to make sure they have the training, tools, and support to keep our communities safe.

Helping Tacoma Thrive

- Joe helped move forward "Home in Tacoma 2" to increase housing options and affordability.
- He championed protections for renters facing sudden rent spikes and poor living conditions.
- Joe continues to expand transitional and supportive housing, helping people get back on their feet before homelessness begins.
- Joe promotes sensible growth and development, improving safety, accessibility and mobility.
